Reasonable attorney's fees, when allowed, shall not exceed either ten percent (10%) of the disputed amount, or the statutory attorney's fee, whichever is greater unless there is documentation of time and charges. A statutory attorney's fee shall be allowed when the amount in dispute is paid any time prior to trial on assigned claims. A reasonable attorney's fee shall not be allowed absent satisfactory justification including documentation of time and charges.

(6) 'Offer of Settlement' under RCW chapter 4.84 means a written offer served in the manner provided by CRLJ 5 for service of pleadings, and in an amount as set by the pleadings. A cross-claim will be treated (between cross-claimant and cross-claim defendant) as if it were a separate action.

The acceptance of any offer of settlement must be served no later than five (5) judicial days prior to the trial date. An acceptance must be in writing and must be served in the same manner as is required for an offer of settlement.

LRSC 1. FIRST APPEARANCE

(a) The term "appear" means personal appearance of the parties involved. At the first appearance, an employee or agent (not an attorney) may appear if that employee/agent has the sufficient facts in order to present the case, and is authorized to bind the party represented.

(b) If the plaintiff and defendant both appear on the assigned first appearance date the case will be assigned a mediator and will mediate that same day. Mediation is mandatory before a trial is allowed. Parties must bring their evidence to the mediation, however, no witnesses are allowed. The purpose of mediation is to settle the case if possible; if no settlement is made at mediation, the case will be set for trial. Attorneys and paralegals may not represent parties at mediation. If the parties have already submitted the case to another type of mediation or arbitration service, the case may proceed directly to trial. If agreement is reached the parties will sign an agreement which will be entered into the record. Parties will receive a copy of the agreement. No judgment will be entered. If the agreement is breached, the nonbreaching party may return to the court for judgment after serving and filing a motion and affidavit setting forth the failure to comply with the terms of the agreement.

(c) If the plaintiff fails to appear, a dismissal will be entered. In cases where the defendant has filed a written counterclaim against the plaintiff and proof of service is presented, the defendant may be allowed judgment against the Plaintiff on the counterclaim. Oral counterclaims are allowed only if both parties appear at the first hearing, and then only if the counterclaim arises out of the same transaction or event upon which the Plaintiff's claim is based.

(d) If the defendant fails to appear and proof of service is presented, and if the plaintiff's testimony supports the claim, the plaintiff will be granted a default judgment against defendant up to the amount claimed and for costs.

(e) If neither party appears the case will be dismissed without prejudice.

LRSC 2. TRIAL

If a trial is necessary, both plaintiff and defendant will appear, testify, call witnesses, and present exhibits for the court to consider. If it is inconvenient or overly expensive to call a witness to appear personally, affidavits of witnesses can be presented. Any affidavit expected to be considered by the court shall be served on the other party at least five (5) days (excluding Saturday, Sunday and Holidays) before the trial. A responsive affidavit may be presented at the trial. Copies of such affidavits must be made available to the other party before the trial commences. A simple "signed statement" will not be considered an affidavit and will not be accepted as evidence. The same rules apply at this hearing as applied at the first appearance if the parties fail to appear.

LRSC 3. CONTINUANCE OF MEDIATION OR SMALL CLAIM TRIAL.

The party requesting the continuance must contact the other party who must also agree to the continuance. Both parties must contact the court in person or by telephone. If one party will not agree to the continuance, the party seeking the continuance may make a written motion for continuance and set a hearing date prior to the scheduled mediation or trial date. The motion and notice of hearing must be served on the opposing party not less than five days prior to the date set for the motion to continue. At the hearing, the judge will determine whether the matter will be continued. If there are less than five days prior to the mediation or trial date to serve the opposing party, the party requesting the continuance may contact the court to explain the circumstances which require the mediation or trial to be continued. The matter may be continued by the court upon showing of good cause.

LRSP 2. UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT PROCEEDINGS

(a) Jurisdiction. If the circumstances alleged in the petition for unlawful harassment meet the statutory criteria, the court shall hear the case unless the parties are already involved in a pending dissolution, dependency or paternity proceeding in which case the matter shall be transferred to Superior Court. The court may require a petitioner to appear and provide testimony prior to issuance of an ex parte temporary order.

(b) Indigent Filing. Upon request of the applicant, the Court shall assess the applicant's financial resources to determine if that individual may proceed in forma pauperis. For the purpose of determining whether grounds for waiver of the filing fee exist, the applicant must complete under oath and submit an Application For Waiver of Fees. No order authorizing waiver of the filing fee shall issue unless the mandatory financial information is submitted to the Court.

(c) Hearing. In unlawful harassment actions only the parties may testify without cross examination, or make statements as allowed by the court. The court may take testimony if it appears to the court necessary for an adequate determination of the matter.
